Technical team

Darnell Brenneman, 21, a Rosedale graduate who is now on staff as men's resident director, has traveled with Salt & Light for two years as a technician. Darnell comes from Grantsville, Maryland, and attends Maple Glen Mennonite Church.

Brian Miller, 20, has run sound at his church, Plainview Mennonite, for two years, and has assisted with sound and lights for five plays. In his second year at Rosedale, Brian is looking ahead to studying animal science and eventually taking over the family dairy farm back in Hutchinson, Kansas.

Meet The Company

Justin Beitzel, 18, braves rapids as a white water rafting guide on the Youghiogheny River and plays bass in the rock band "Redefined in Red." On a worship team since he was 12, Justin is in his first year at RBC. He comes from Grantsville, Maryland and attends Cherry Glade Mennonite Church.

Liz Diller, 21, is Salt & Light's coordinator. A 2007 Rosedale graduate, Liz comes from Belleville, Pennsylvania and attends Mountain View Mennonite Chapel. Liz started playing piano for the worship team at home when she was 12, sang with the Rosedale Chorale for two years, and is resident director in the women's dorm at RBC this year.

Ryan Graber, 18, loves teaching children, wants to travel the world, and has burst both eardrums more than once. He attends Cherry Glade Mennonite Church in his home town, Accident, Maryland, and is in his second year at Rosedale.

Steph Harnish, 21, has been out of the country every year since 2003, speaks Spanish, is learning to play violin, and celebrated on New Year's Eve by doing a two-mile run "into" the new year. Steph is in her second year at Rosedale, comes from Quarryville, Pennsylvania and attends Bart Mennonite Church in nearby Christiana.

Travis Helmuth, 18, has been playing guitar since he was nine and loves: bluegrass, country, worship, and quartet music; sports, the outdoors, and fast cars. A first-year RBC student, he comes from Hilliard, Ohio and attends Agape Community Fellowship.

Anthony Miller, 19, once locked himself out of his hotel room while sleepwalking. From Lexington, Kentucky, Anthony attends Oasis Community Church, plays guitar, piano and bass, has sung in an all-state choir, and serves on the technical team at his church. Anthony is in his first year at RBC.

Amber Moser, 19, performed in the New York State School Music Association Festival twice and has been in the Christmas and Easter choruses at her church, Naumburg Mennonite, for the past six years. Her home is in Copenhagen, New York. Ask her about the time her dad got his family to go sliding off the barn roof.

Naomi Raber, 21, once hiked with her family (by moonlight at 4:30 am) to see Easter sunrise from the top of an Appalachian mountain. She played Aunt Ev in last year's RBC production of The Miracle Worker, enjoys participating in church Christmas musicals, and attends Millersburg Mennonite Church when she's at home in Millersburg, Ohio.
