

1. Please read pages 36 – 41; 55 – 58 in the Arnold text and report your reading here. (Did you read them all, or how many pages did you read?)

2. How does the author define the term, etiology? Give an example of an etiology from the early chapters of Genesis.

3. What did Eve’s response to the serpent’s question tell us about her?

4. “If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it.” Describe how you can apply in your own life this warning God gave to Cain in Genesis 4:7.

5. In Arnold’s comments on pages 56-58, what does he say is . . .
  - 5.1 The purpose of genealogies in the Bible in general?

  - 5.2 The purpose of genealogies in Genesis 5 in particular?

6. Genesis chapter 6 describes God’s personal interest in human society. Make of list of the following, and supply the verse reference for each observation.
  - 6.1 What did God see?

  - 6.2 What did God feel?

  - 6.3 What did God do (or determine to do)?
