

1. Please read chapter 10 (pp. 131-139) in the Arnold text and report your reading here. (Did you read it all? If not, how many pages did you read?)

2. Looming large on the horizon of any return to Canaan for Jacob was coming back into proximity with his estranged brother, Esau.
 - 2.1 What precautions did Jacob take in preparing to meet Esau?

 - 2.2 What do those precautions tell us about his character by this time?

3. Jacob's encounter with God on the bank of the river Jabbok resulted in two new names—one for Jacob and one for the place. What are the names and their meanings?

4. How did Jacob's favoritism for the children of Rachel contribute to the sorry business between his family and the Shechemites?
