On Friday evening, Rosedale Bible College planned the Christian Education program. Recent and distant-past members of the Rosedale Chorale shared a special number. The first annual SamaKuma Cup was awarded to the Oasis youth group of Lexington, Kentucky. Plans were announced for the inaugural weekend planned for Jon Showalter on the weekend of September 27. Art McPhee, Professor of Discipleship and Practical Theology at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky, spoke on Discipleship and Kingdom Communities. McPhee introduced the topic with a description of his problem with losing umbrellas. As a counselor, I especially enjoyed his descriptions of his family system and decision-making, especially when, for the sake of not losing it so easily, he requested a bright yellow umbrella for Christmas.

FRIDAY EVENING

By Conrad Showalter

On Friday evening, Rosedale Bible College planned the Christian Education program. Recent and distant-past members of the Rosedale Chorale shared a special number. The first annual SamaKuma Cup was awarded to the Oasis youth group of Lexington, Kentucky. Plans were announced for the inaugural weekend planned for Jon Showalter on the weekend of September 27. Art McPhee, Professor of Discipleship and Practical Theology at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky, spoke on Discipleship and Kingdom Communities. McPhee introduced the topic with a description of his problem with losing umbrellas. As a counselor, I especially enjoyed his descriptions of his family system and decision-making, especially when, for the sake of not losing it so easily, he requested a bright yellow umbrella for Christmas.